Maryland and Va. Boundary Line.
The Board of Arbitrators appointed by the States of Maryland and Virginia to dispose of this long pending controversy, consisting of Hous. Jeremiah S. Black, of Pennsylvania; Wm. A. Graham, of North Carolina, and Charles J. Jenkins, of Georgia, with A. W. Graham, Secretary to the Board, was in session last week at the Metropolitan Hotel, in Washington.

The counsel for Virginia, Attorney General Daniel and Judge Robertson, and for Maryland, ex-Attorney General Jones, and ex-Governor Whyte, made opening statements, setting forth the respective claims of the States, and gave outlines of their future arguments. Printed briefs, copies of depositions and of important colonial and other papers from the public archives of Great Britain, maps of various kinds, published as far back as 1612, down to the present period, voluminous legislative reports and agreements, were furnished in printed form to each of the Commissioners, to be read during the recess.

The Board then adjourned to meet at New York on the 30th of June, 1875, to hear full argument of the case. In the meanwhile, it is probable that more witnesses to prove traditions and reputation as to the boundary line, as understood by the "oldest inhabitants," will be examined in Somerset county, Md., and in Accomac, Va. The Arbitrators have given the case the closest attention, and evince a determination to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the points in controversy.

Whatever may be the result, the people of both States can rest satisfied that the most patient hearing, the most devoted attention and the fairest determination will be given to all the questions involved in this dispute.

THE POTOMAC FISHERY.—The Washington Star says: "The shad and herring fishing season in the Potomac river, which terminates within a fortnight, has proven a failure, and some of the parties running the fisheries find themselves out of pocket to a considerable amount as the result of their spring work. Taking a general view of the situation, it is thought that not a single landing on either side of the river, from Jackson City to the lower Potomac, will ever pay the expenses that have been incurred in running them. It is the general belief that the catch will be less than one-third the usual annual average, and all agree that they have never known so disastrous a season. The immediate cause assigned for it is the present season is the cold north winds which set in about the 15th of April and continued for twelve days without cessation, heading the fish off and driving them to the creeks and rivers near the mouth of the bay.

"The well-known fish dealer, Wm. E. Stewart, who has the experience acquired by being engaged in the trade for many years past, is of the opinion that the catch in the Susquehanna river and at the shores and creeks in Baltimore, Hartford, Cecil and Kent counties, Md., has been very good, and the prices for both shad and herring in Baltimore and Philadelphia has been much below what it has been at Alexandria. His theory is that the steady north wind which set in about the time the fish commenced ascending the Potomac, drove them back and forced them into the creeks and streams indicated. No shad or herring have been sent from this District to Northern markets, as has heretofore been done. Herring, in our own market, now sell readily at $12 per thousand, which last year went down to $4.50, and shad at $14.50 per hundred, which last year were sold at $6. It is estimated that the total loss in our fish for the thirty or more landings on the Potomac in excess of the returns will amount to about $50,000. It is stated by some that the proprietors of High Point, Stony Point and Moxley's landings have about paid expenses thus far. Freestone Point, operated by Mr. J. D. Faunce so successfully last year, has proved a failure this year. It is thought there will not be a seine in the river by the coming week."

In the canvass of '60, when Herschel V. Johnson's name was upon the presidential ticket with Stephen A. Douglas, he was known throughout the nation. Now his reputation is confined to that county of Georgia whose back he fills. To a race of charge to the grand jury he made statements which show that his mind is fixating on the hereafter. This was his homily: "My course is almost run. I have nothing in the way of political honors to look forward to. All that I wish is to be useful in the position which I occupy. We have a herculean task before us, if we want the rising generation to be anything. Money is not all. We may accumulate the riches of Golconda, and what will all be to our children if they are destitute of character and principle? I may awaken the censures of some by this digression from a judicial charge, but, if I can be instrumental in sowing some good seed that may spring up and grow, I will welcome their censures. Let us do our duty and leave this world with the satisfaction that we have not lived in vain."—Exchange.

CIVIL RIGHTS.—On Monday last about fifty colored people in Winchester, Va., assembled in Court House Square, under the lead of Randall Martin, a somewhat notorious politician, for the purpose of celebrating the passage of the civil rights and "defining their position" on that question. The larger and better class of colored people refused to take part in the proceedings. Martin commenced the delivery of an address, in which he abused those who had refused to participate, when he was interrupted by a party of colored fanatics, who suddenly brought the meeting to a close. Later in the day two respectable colored barbers, Chas. Wells and Blucher Mann, enforced the doctrine of "civil rights" by beating in a severe manner Martin and an associate. The Times says the affair was a very lively one, and for a time created quite a commotion on Main street.

J. H. ZEILIN & CO.,
Macon, Ga., and Philadelphia.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constipated, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved.

Nearly all diseases originate from Indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Want of action in the Liver causes Headache, Cough, Chills, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms. For which SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered. It acts compoundly, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for 40 years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its being the purest and best.

The Clergy.
